PLEASING MYSELF

- A Presentation by Dave Stewart

(NEMPF)

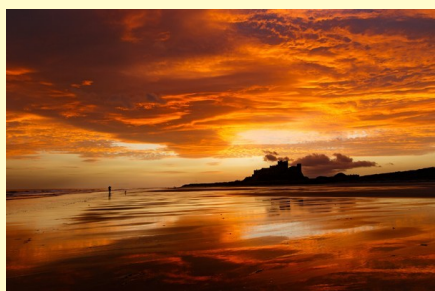

Thursday, 1 October 2026 at 7:30 for 8pm

Dave Stewart became fascinated by photography about the age of nine, when an uncle showed him the magic that happened within his darkroom. He got his first camera shortly after that, which hooked him for life.

In 1974, Dave took his first professional photograph and subsequently, he has been lucky enough to earn most of his living with his camera.

Dave was a freelance sports photographer for many years, as well as a wedding and portrait photographer. His main interest now is shooting heavy metal bands in action.

This evenings presentation, 'Pleasing Myself', covers several subjects close to his heart.
